Marseilles Hymn.

Ves. Ye sons of France awake to glory. Hark hark what myriads bid you rise. Your Children wives & grandsires hoary; Behold their tears & hear their cries behold their fears and hear their cries. Shall hateful Tyrants mischief breeding with hireling hosts a ruffian band: affright and desolate the land. While peace and liberty lie bleeding, To arms, to arms ye brave

Now, now the dangerous storm is rowling,
Which treachrous Kings confederate raise
The dogs of War let loose are howling
And lo! our walls, and cities blaze
And shall we basely view the ruin
While lawless force with guilty stride
Spreads desolation far and wide
With crimes and blood his hands embruing
To arms, &c.

With luxury and pride surrounded,
The vile insulting despots dare;
Their thirst of gold and power unbounded,
To mete and vend the light and air:
Like beasts of burden would they load us
Like Gods, would bid their Slaves adore.
But Man is Man, and who is more.
Then shall they longer lash and goad us?
To arms, &c.

Thaves giving fewer unsheath March on March on all hearts resolved on Victory or Death.

Ver 2.
Jess Jeams thinking of nothing at all,
And driving as fast as I can,
I runs a quiter thing against the wall,
Half a monkey, and half a man!
The mob come round him to put up his blood,
While he's trembling from top to toe,
My whip it goes spank,
I lays Ball on the flank,
Ball plunges, and paints him all over with mud,
Tears his stockings, and spoils the beau!

Then the sweet pretty dear
Ah could you but hear;
("Odds curse you I'll make you know.
("You infernal Villain.")
Lord dep your baby face, I would not hurt your ("finale shanks for the world.")
Wo Ball wo!
So to mind 'em I never seem,
But whistles and drives my team.

When far along the restless deep,
In toilsome toss the Ship shall steer;
Your form, remembrance still shall keep,
Your Worth, affection still revere;
And with the Distance from your Eyes,
My Love for you shall be encreas'd
As to the Pole the Needle lies,
And farthest off still varies least.

While round the Bowl the cheerful Crew
Shall sing of triumphs on the main;
My thoughts shall fondly turn to you,
Of you alone shall be my Strain:
Still when we've bow'd the laguing Foe,
Revengeful for our Country's wrong,
Returning Home my Heart shall Shew
No Fiction grac'd my artless song.

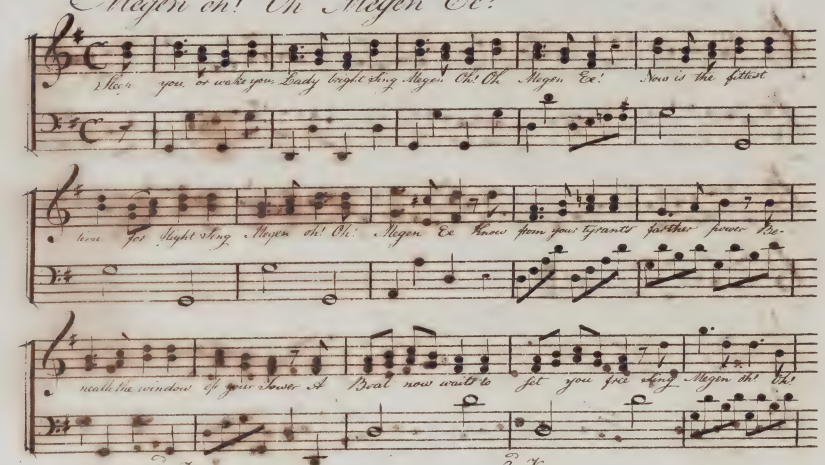
Megen oh! Oh Megen Ee?

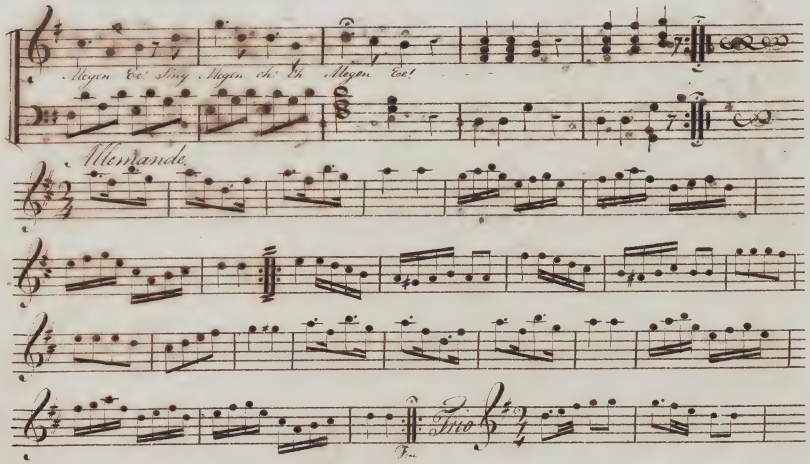


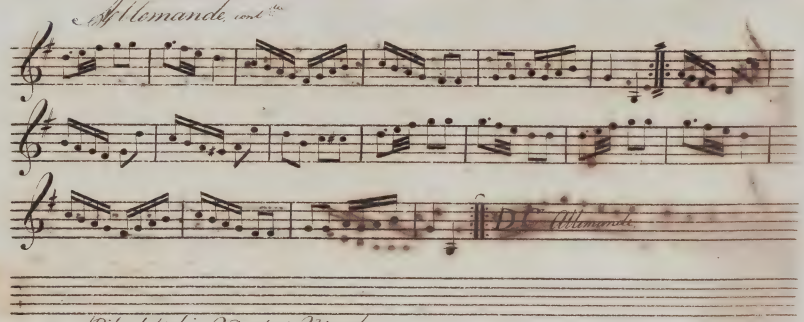
2 Verse.

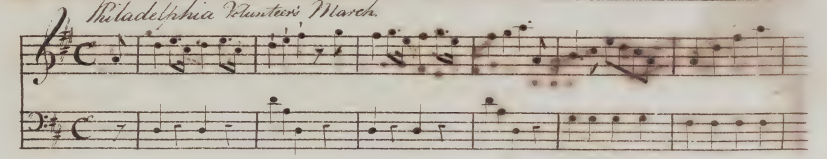
Though deep the stream, though high the wall
Sing Megen oh! Oh Megen Ee!
The danger trifle me, Love is small:
Sing Megen oh! Oh Megen Ee
To Spring below them, never dread;
My arms to catch you shall be spread;
And far from hence you soon shall be
Sing Megen oh! Oh! Megen Ee!
Sing Megen oh! Oh! Megen Ee!

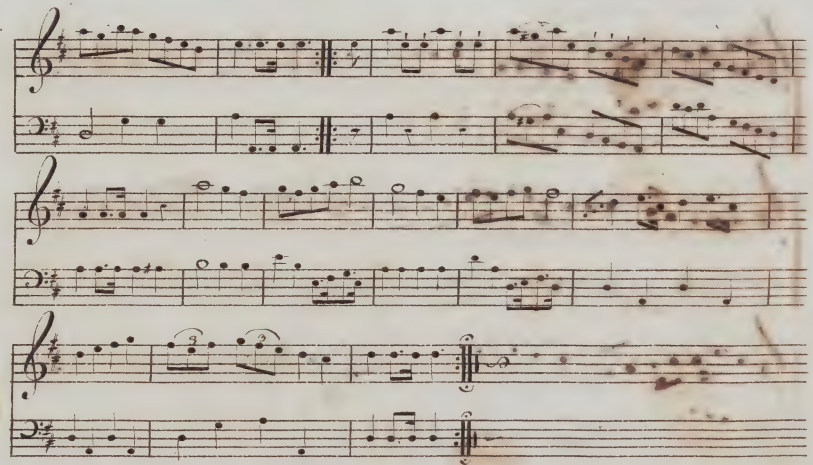
3 Verse.

Fair Emma hush'd her heart's alarms:
Sing Megen oh! Oh! Megen Ee!
She sprang into her Lovers arms
Sing Megen oh! Oh Megen Ee!
Unbuilt for fell; then swift's its way
The Boat pursued without delay
While Emma plac'd on Edgar's knee
Sing Megen oh! Oh Megen Ee!
Sing Megen oh! Oh Megen Ee!

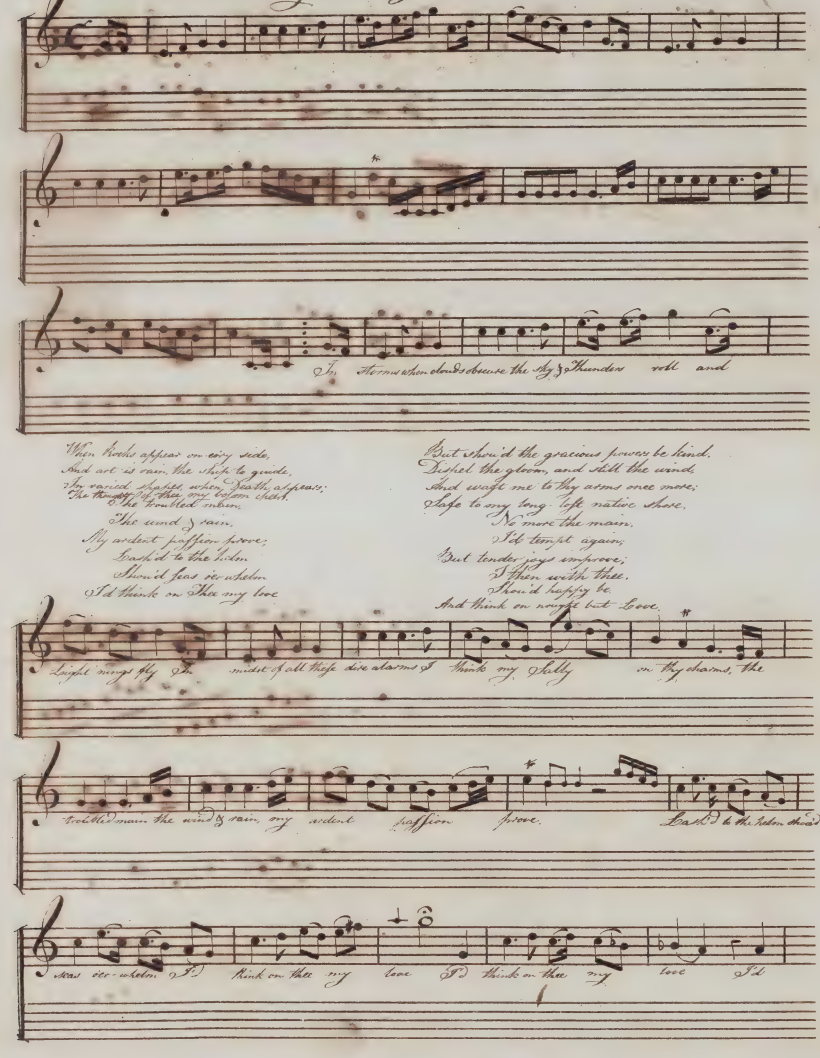








I'd think on Thee my Love. by Hook.



When Rocks appear on ev'ry side,
And art is vain the ship to guide,
No conjugal delights when Death appears:
Tis then my Love, my solemn thought
O'er troubled mein
The wind & rain,
My ardent passion prove;
Lash'd to the helm
Should seas ne'er whelm
I'd think on Thee my love

But should the gracious powers be kind,
Dispel the gloom, and still the wind,
And waft me to thy arms once more;
Safe to my long left native shore,
No more the main,
I'd tempt again;
But tender joys improve;
I'd then with thee,
Should happy be,
And think on nought but Love.
